LOCATION:

The subject property is situated in the London Borough of Bexley, approximately 7 miles south-east of central London.

The immediate area surrounding comprises a combination of residential flats and houses together with a range of commercial users serving the local community, from specialist local independents to representatives of the national chains, including Lidl's, Morrisons and Tesco's supermarkets.

The property is less than half a mile from Welling mainline station, which provides frequent services into three main London stations, Cannon Street (Approx. 33 mins), Victoria (Approx. 40mins) and Charing Cross (35mins).

There are numerous bus routes serving the area and there is good access to the A2 trunk road into central London, with the M25 motorway / Dartford Crossing being within twenty minute's drive. The nearby A207 connects to Greenwich and Dartford.

DESCRIPTION:

The subject property comprises a fairly sizeable mid terraced building which comprises on the ground floor two office areas plus an office / training facility together with two, good sized 2 bedroom flats over.

The two flats share an entrance door at the front on the property.

The property includes a rear parking area.
